

Wetland area used for gardens below the level of the house plot built up with sand. Old corrugated iron fence to retain the sand is ineffective and the plot and buildings are scouring out in heavy rain.

The back of the church is built up about 2 metres above the surrounding ground level to avoid the flood hazard.